

OFFICE FOR WESTERLY MAN

John A. Farrell Stamp Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue
Service—Death of Charles W. Bray—Norwich Belt
Manufacturing Company's Notes Come Up in Connection With Atlantic Bank Matter—Mrs. Vose Asks $4000 Damages.

So far as the town of Westerly is concerned, the Third district court is a supporting and bills in connection with that court are never presented to the Westerly town council for action, nor is the town asked to make appropriation for station house or police expenses. There is always expense in connection with the care of prisoners in the police station, and the police officers are required to incur expense in running down criminals. Chief Thomas E. Brown explains that all expenses incurred by the police in line of duty and the care of prisoners in the police station was paid from a fund made up of fees paid the police in the Third district court. He said that did not signify that a fund was always available, for there was not. In that event the fees for the prisoners in the police station were paid from the private funds of the officers, and they were reimbursed when the amount of fees warranted, and sometimes there was a long wait. In the event of arrest being made and the accused discharged, when the case is lost to the state, the town must pay the costs, and this amount comes out of the witness fees of the officers. It has been the custom not to draw on the town for any funds to meet the expenses of the police department except perhaps, the policeman who advances money to the town and has to wait a long time for reimbursement in waiting for the fees to come in.

Andrew Farrell, head of the granite company of Andrew Farrell & Sons, is the recognized leader of local democracy. John R. Farrell, a son of Andrew Farrell, who with two brothers constitute the granite company, and who has been his father's lieutenant in democratic politics, will soon be a full-fledged federal office holder. He is to succeed Charles W. Murphy, who has been promoted as stamp deputy collector of the United States internal revenue office in Providence. Arrangement has been made to insure the transfer of the office without business interruption. Mr. Murphy will today (Monday) assume his new duties as revenue inspector. Westerly is with acting in conjunction with the office at Boston.

Andrew Farrell is a candidate for the postmaster ship to succeed Postmaster Charles J. Butler, and he claims to have the pole position in the race. Other candidates are William Allen, a letter carrier, who is the dean of the local postoffice; George Bray, druggist, and Major Howard Swan, retired. There are several other democrats, good and true, who are getting out of the receptive class and will soon get into the running, and among the number is prominent democrat of Pawtucket, which is in the jurisdiction of the Westerly postoffice. Westerly is with in the congressional district represented by Congressman Gerry, and Pawtucket is in Congressman Mahan's district.

Charles W. Bray, a resident of Westerly for the past 22 years, died Saturday morning of pneumonia, after a short illness, at his home in Main street. Mr. Bray was born in Millville, Mass., a son of William H. and Mary Bray, 42 years ago. He completed his education in the Providence High school, and came to Westerly in 1892 as a clerk in The Corner Drug Store, which was located in the Chapman building, corner of Main and Broad streets and managed by George H. Bray, and remained in that employ until the business was closed. He was a fine penman and expert bookkeeper, and was engaged mainly in that occupation since retiring from the drug business. He leaves a brother, George H. Bray, the only surviving member of the family.

The pool team representing the Catholic club of Westerly played the fifth match in the series with the team of Yma council, K. of C., at Stonington, on Friday night and won by 45 points. The score follows:

Catholic Club.	K. of C.
Sullivan 48	McCourt 12
Quigley 30	Edmunds 29
Trillo 41	Woods 19
Tomney 30	Riley 20
Total 149	Totals 80

In the five games played the Westerly team leads by 84 balls. At which the players representing the Catholic club won by four points.

The Watchmocket Fire company has made an early start to have the next muster of the Rhode Island State Firemen's league, which was held in Westerly in 1912, in North Providence on Labor day. The Watchmocket know how to handle a big muster, what it is required to do in connection with the big event. All this has been fully considered. It is eleven years since a muster was held in Westerly, and the local company is ready to make all the necessary arrangements, and then some.

The present week will be a busy one in the First Artillery district, R. I. G., as six of the companies will participate in competitive drills at which they will be inspected by the district commander, accompanied by the officers. Tonight the First, Fourth and 17th companies of Providence will go through the drill, while the Fifth company, Westerly, will be visited Tuesday night, the Sixth at Pawtucket on Wednesday, and the Sixth at Woonsocket on Thursday. As the inspections are competitive, each company will be marked on a percentage basis, and the result published in general orders.

Judge Arthur L. Brown, of the United States District court, has handed down three orders in response to the petition of R. L. Curda, receiver of the Atlantic National bank, of Providence, to sell certain notes which are held by the bank, at less than their face value. The first order relates to notes made by John Zedron, a contractor, of Boston. He owes the bank $2762.82. This account is made up of $2000 in a promissory note for 12 1/2 per cent. of face value. The second account is that of the Cranston Loan and Lumber company, which is ordered sold to John H. Reynolds for 75 per cent. of the face value. This account is the residue of two notes and amounts to $1350 and accrued interest.

The Norwich Belt Manufacturing company placed seven notes with the bank each for $312.50. These notes are to be sold to Meador and Co., their agent, through Robert W. Perkins for 25 per cent. of their face value.

The twentieth conference of the Rhode Island Daughters of the American Revolution, which is to be held in Providence, will have full representation from Phoebe Greene Ward Chapter of Westerly. Rev. Francis W. Gibbs will open the conference with prayer after which reports of officers and committees will be made and the meeting will then be adjourned.

Get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Stop being miserable! It is too short—you're not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without fear of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, or stomach trouble, it is handy to give instant relief.

STONINGTON

Waldron Fund Distribution—Old Cannon to be Slicked Up For Celebration—News of Sports.

At the monthly meeting of the teachers of the town, at which Susan Perry presided, it was decided not to observe Lincoln's day, but Washington's birthday is to be a holiday.

The state inspector of boilers was a caller here Saturday and inspected the steam fire engine which was found to be in excellent condition.

Westerly men are constructing an addition to the residence of F. C. Joseph on Water street.

A Beneficent Fund.
The trustees of the Waldron fund met in annual session recently and made distributions of the fund to worthy widows and destitute persons.

The sophomore class of old Stonington High school will hold a dance in the school hall Wednesday evening.

To Get Cannon Ready For Celebration
At the monthly meeting of the warden and burgesses it was voted to have the old battle cannon in Cannon square repaired, painted, and put in preparation for the party they will take in August. The warden and the park commissioners were elected a committee to attend to the matter.

These cannons have been more or less neglected during the last 100 years. It was also voted to paint the truck of Pioneer Hook and Ladder company.
